Foreword

Let's turn the pages of time. We, the 1959 yearbook staff, want to leave with you something beautiful, that will be a joy forever -- the 1959 OCEANIAN. As time goes by, memories fade, we grow older, but we hope that as you leaf through these pages, time will stand still, and you will be able to recapture and relive those happy, unforgettable times in years gone by at Oceana High.

Pages Of Time''

As time goes by . . .

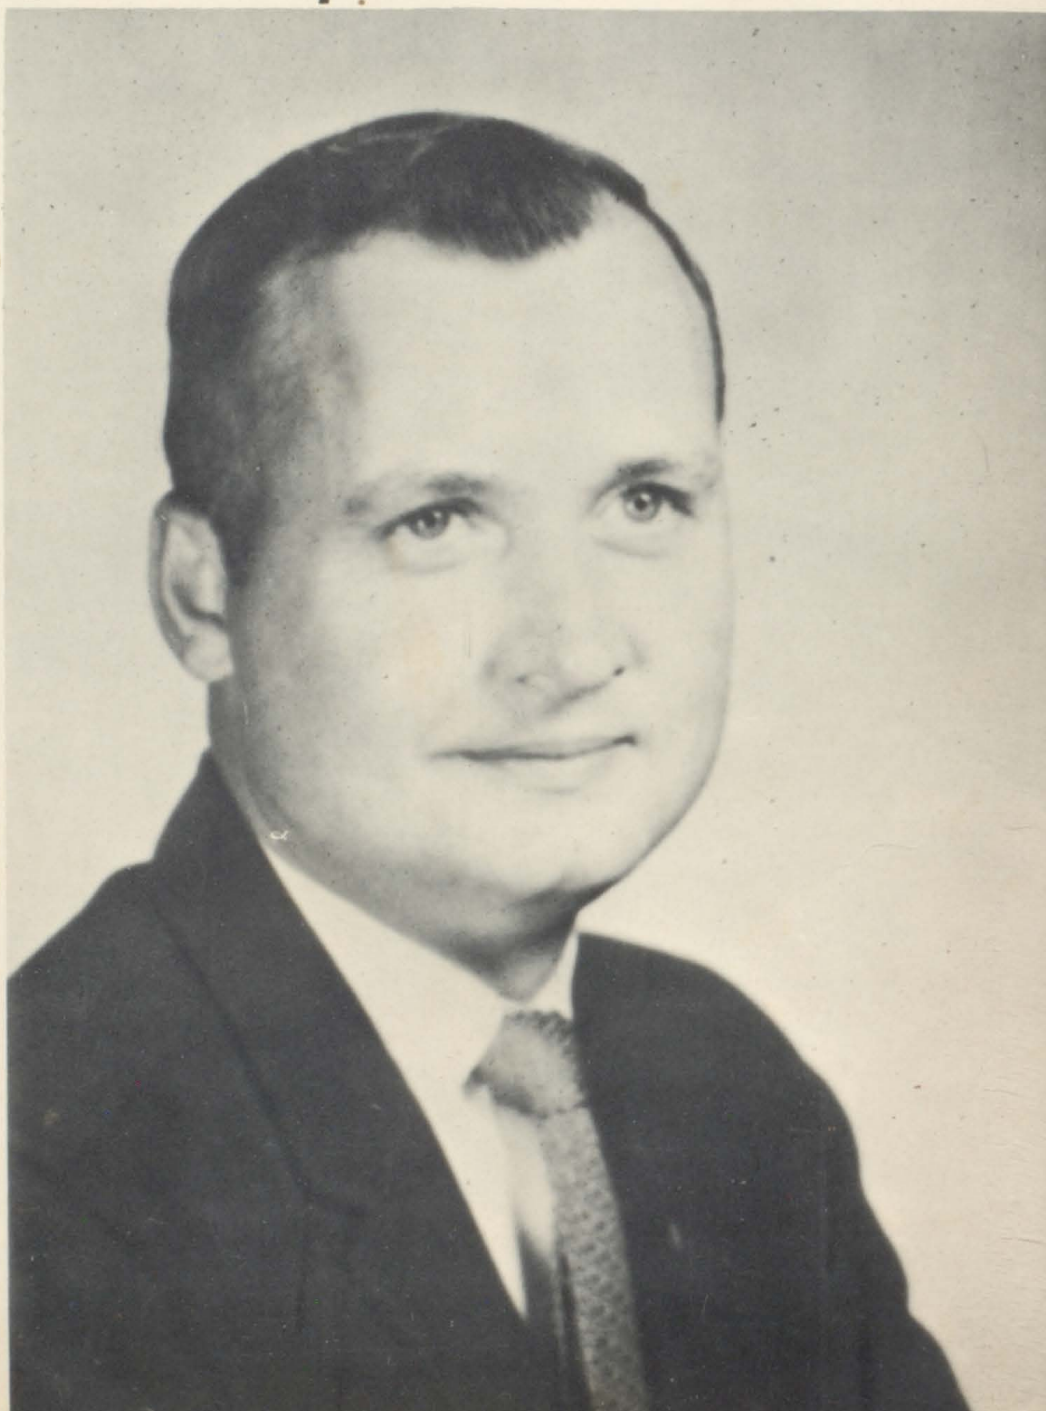

we'll remember the people who make Oceana High "go" . . .

It is the unanimous decision of the senior class that the '59 OCEANIAN should be dedicated to you, Mr. Cook--you, who was for three years our sponsor and now our principal--you, who tolerated our weaknesses, understood our failures, and yet who remained smiling though your only reward was the knowledge that our success is your success.

YOUR HONORABLE PRESENCE IS
PALACE OF SUM-FUN
LAKE FU-SWUM-SUM-SUNK
Hong Kong May 21, 1969

The above invitation, along with a ticket to Hong-Kong, was sent all over the world to each member of the 1959 graduating class. Let us see what they were doing when the invitation reached them. From all over the world, members are perparing to make the happy journey to Hong-Kong.

In the United States, the Roger Aliff Apartments were a scene of confusion. Eulanna Tyree Conley, who drives a lumber truck, called her neighbor, Janet Short Goins, who operates a merry-go-round, to see if she had received her invitation. Together, they went to see Peggy Maxey Brooks, who collects doughnut holes. Betty Stewart, now Mrs. Maynor, was there also with her thirteen children.

In Hollywood, John Belcher is being considered for Gene Bane's latest western movie co-starring Roy Tate as Gabby Wayes, and Jean Walker as the heroine.

On the outskirts of the city, at Beryl Brinkley's famous night club, Gilbert Paitzel and David Long are giving a party in honor of Norma Barnett, world renowned for her role in Judy Dalton's autobiography, "I Led a Double Life." Also there is "Mr. America, 1969," Glenn Chaffins.

Just back from her third trip around the world, Donna Jean Cook tells Detective Ronnie Perkins, that while in Paris she saw Brenda Meredith, who is studying art.

Wrentro Tilley, wrestler and chief competitor of Gorgeous George, has his long locks done by special beautician, Betsey Marshall.

Raymond Tracy, acclaimed as the second Elvis Presley, came and brought his hair stylist, Janet Baxter, who has dyed his hair red, her specialty.

Evidently the party was a huge success, for most of the guests wound up in the Shirley Lloyd Hospital, under the care of Carol Rose, Joan Thomas, Karen Walls, and Betty Toler.

Dr. Ash Stewart recommended that they all go to Cuba to Fidel Castro's Rest Camp and hear the soothing music of Bobby Hager and his trumpet and laugh with Dennis Worrell, "Funniest Man Alive."

Kenney Easter, president of the Indianapolis Speed Way, is now in Reno getting his eighth divorce.

The mailmen are busy in New York City too, delivering invitations to Patty Duty, concert star in Carnegie Hall, and to Caryl Trent, who is consumer for a department store owned by Arthur Crouse. David Jones designs the men's clothes and JoAnn Blankenship is in charge of salesgirls.

Cyril Halsey has doubled Billy Graham's attendance record at Madison Square Garden.

Clark Fultz and his wife, Marilynn Sliger, raise the flag every morning in Central Park.

At Oceana High we find that Donnie Weir, now officially principal, has called a faculty meeting of those teachers who graduated in '59 to discuss the excursion to Hong Hong.

From the shorthand department comes Beverly Pruett; librarian, Judy Lusk; business machines, Claudene Steffey; social science, Troy Stewart; journalism, Eddie Gibson; English, Vondie Cook; and Coach David Whisenant. Guidance Director Sandra Brown is in Paris at the moment. JoAnn Cook, also a teacher, is not on the OHS staff. She has gone to Old Mexico for her health.

Danny Short is in Cape Canaveral, Florida. It seems that Tony Bailey, Thomas Milam, and Raymond Cook, scientists, plan to send him to the moon in a rocket designed by Larry Lusk.

Alice Childers covers the story and writes it up in her newspaper, "The Dog Branch Daily," for which Ronnie Mayhew is sports writer. He says that Patty Brinkley's girls' basketball team will go far. He also says that Jimmy Cook and Clinton Salyers have opened a shop that sells nothing but colored basketballs.

Prophecy

Meanwhile, in the jungles of Africa, we find that Barbara Mathis, wild game hunter, has had a nervous breakdown from seeing too many hamburgers, and Psychiatrist Carolynne Evans, is trying to relate it all to those days at the drive-in. Karen England and Nancy Herndon are selling rubber-tipped arrows to the natives. These girls have received the Brenda Keys World Peace Prize for their tireless efforts.

In Egypt, Harry Moore is in charge of a cleaning service for King Joe Osborne's wives.

Patty Webb and Wilma Toler run a fishing boat company in the Mediterranean Sea. Ira Cook, deep sea diver, hooks fish on their customers' lines.

In Italy, Larry O'Brien, Roger Lambert, and Jimmy Griffin own a huge chain of pizza stores run by Phyllis Workman.

Jackie Mulkey, visiting the Holy Lands, found that her camel was owned by Densel Blackburn.

In France, Mary Lee Cooke has opened a branch of the Betty Crocker Industry.

Janie Bowman is making her fortune in defending ex-premiers. Her present client, Jimmy Powell, has just left for Switzerland, where he will enroll his daughter in the exclusive Katie Aliff School for Girls, where Ashby Hamrick is basketball coach. Also teaching in the school is Nada Gunoe. She teaches underwater basket weaving.

Somewhere in the Alps Dennie Browning, and Bobby Henry own a watch factory. Joy Walls, Ada Webb, and Rosa Laxton work in solitude with precision instruments.

The stamp on this invitation says England, where we find Jaunetta Clay and Loretta Shumate, who are secretaries for Betty Parsons, recording star in Mavis Blankenship's "Hit Disc Company."

The Pennington Rolls-Royce shop, owned by Clifton and Richard, is doing fine business with Ray Ford, Jack Lambert, Billy Church, and Charles Bush as mechanics.

In the Land of the Rising Sun (Japan) Nancy Fleenor and Anna Belle Parsley work in a fireworks factory. Business is booming.

Franklin Dean lives a dog's life. He is in charge of the Dean Kennels which specializes in Pugs. He sells many of these Pugs to people in India, who live in a housing project built by Eudell Morgan for Paul Jeffrey and Ralph Johnson, elephant trainers. In these houses live people of various occupations. James Cline and his assistant Phyllis Sizemore are snake charmers. Bonnie Booth is a silk merchant, and Phyllis Griffin is an international spy.

It is now May 21, 1969. An airplane is arriving at Hong Kong Airport. The ramps are rolled to the door and out steps Larry Pennington, Manager of the Cape-Heats. Behind him are Clara Toler and Wilda Lamb, members of Phyllis Robinson's theatrical group.

Frances Hood, airline hostess, says "good-bye," then adds, "see you soon," as she and pilot Homer Toler go to a tea house before going to the Palace of Sum-Fun.

Joe Cook, Jesse Crutchfield, Henry Meadows, Bobby Stewart, David Cook, Charles Stewart, and Ronald Burchett, are stationed near Hong Kong and will not have far to go for the mysterious rendezvous. A pass won't be hard to get, since these boys now practically run their outfits.

All of the members of the '59 graduating class have gathered at the Palace of Sum-Fun. The garden seems to bring back dim memories. A few recall that the theme of their '59 prom was "Oriental Gardens."

The guests go inside the palace. There they are welcomed by members of the '59 junior class, who are hosts for this strange and delightful Oriental reunion.

CHAMBERS JEWELRY
LARRY'S DRIVE-IN Oceana, W. Va.

Step 1. The first job to be performed in the organization of a school paper is the choosing of its editors.

Step 2. Next you choose an advertising staff. You need a staff that is persistent, confident, and hopeful.

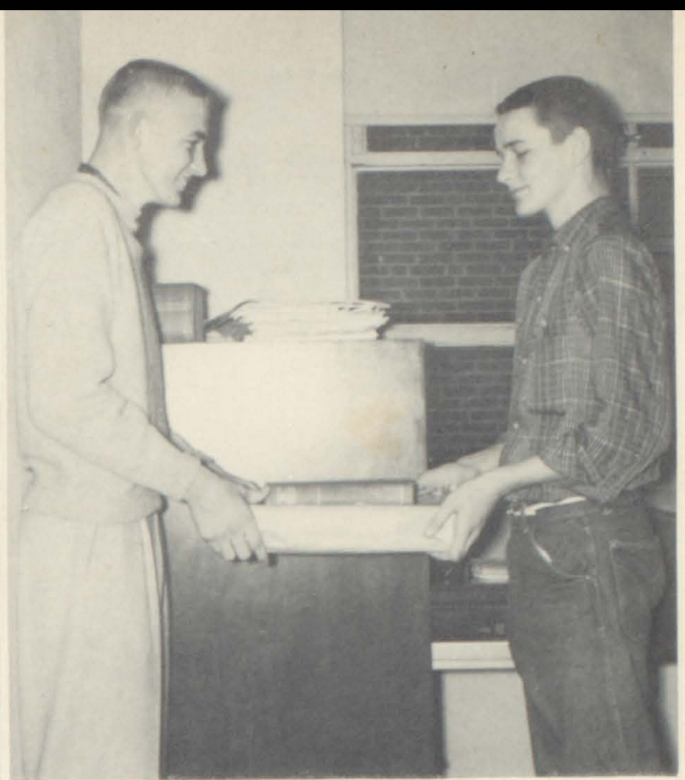

Step 3. The newspaper is only as good as its reporters.

Step 4. Circulation sees that you receive finished product.

Step 5. Tootired to work are the "Keepers of the Morgue."

Step 6. But those who meet the qualifications of a good reporter pose for a picture of the "Quill and Scroll."

Life flees swiftly past
How fast the hours chime
But memories will linger on
As you "Turn Back the Pages of Time."

OCEANA HIGH SCHOOL

Alma Mater

Hail Oceana,
We dedicate to you,
Hearts that you'll find
Ever loyal and true,
Firm and undaunted, always we'll be,
Hail Oceana,
We salute to thee,
True to the school we love,
We'll always be.
